

Could this be you?

A Dentist was subjected to a 15 month enquiry into his business mileage and verification of patient fees. The Inspector requested all private bank statements but ultimately the accounts were proved to be correct. Only a minor adjustment was made but the accountancy fees were almost £8,300.

A family owned Pub was subjected to an enquiry when the Revenue questioned their Gross Profit Rate and suggested over £80,000 had been omitted from the accounts. After a difficult enquiry there were no adjustments to the declared profits, but the defence fees amounted to over £6,000.

A Car Dealership with a turnover of over £8m was investigated for stock adjustments and PAYE compliance. Even though the enquiry lasted only 9 months and needed relatively minor adjustments for NIC, accountancy fees in excess of £14,000 were incurred in this short period.

Subscribe today, don't wait until the Revenue comes knocking on your door...

Without this protection, you will be responsible for all of the defence costs associated in representing you during an investigation.

You will benefit from:

- Protection against the defence costs of an investigation
- Confidence during the enquiry that you will not need to concede for financial reasons
- The ability to fight the Revenue on an equal basis

Don't wait until the Tax Man comes knocking

It's time to get protected!

Is your luck about to run out?

The taxman is cracking down on businesses that don't pay the right amount of tax, but innocent taxpayers are being caught in the crossfire.

Tax investigations can be chosen at random and you could be an unlucky target.

Tax investigations are:

- Expensive – accountancy fees regularly exceed £5,000
- Time consuming – the enquiry could last several years
- Harrowing – you will be at the mercy of the Revenue

You could be next!

It's time to take action

Tax Investigations Protection

If you are unlucky enough to be investigated, the right accountancy representation is vital – but this can cost thousands of pounds. Too many businesses simply concede to the Revenue's unreasonable demands as it is too expensive to prove their innocence and of course in the current economic climate, the Revenue will be looking to collect as much tax as possible for the Exchequer. Our Tax Investigations Protection reimburses the costs of our professional fees in the event you are investigated by the Revenue so that you can fight the taxman on an equal footing.

Protect Yourself Now

The package reimburses our professional fees up to £75,000 if you suffer one of the following investigations:*

- Income Tax Self Assessment Enquiries
- Corporation Tax Self Assessment Enquiries
- HMRC VAT Disputes
- Employer Compliance Disputes
- IR35 Disputes

*Please see accompanying documentation for full details

Business Legal Advice

With constantly changing legislation and an increasingly litigious society, it is more and more difficult to ensure your business complies with the law. Business clients who subscribe to our Tax Investigations package will receive access to a free, 24 hour Business Legal Helpline designed to help you stay on the right side of regulation. The helpline, manned 365 days a year by a large team of specialist lawyers can advise on:

- Employment Law matters
- Health & Safety legislation
- Commercial issues.

Don't wait until the Tax Man comes knocking